Very Important Facts for Travelers:

*A valid Indian passport with minimum 06 months validity or an election Id is the only valid document for adults ( 18 yrs & above) for travel to Kathmandu by air.

For children below the age of 18 years the school or college id suffices, but a bonafide school certificate should be carried as well to avoid immigration issues .

The id should clearly reflect the traveller's picture, school or college name, date of birth as well as the class in which the student is studying. Request that this be checked with Indian Immigration authorities at your end too. This information stands good while writing this mail. Do update yourself for any changes. This information is correct as of today and cannot be held liable just in case anyone is not allowed to board or the Govt of India changes the regulations.

ADHAR CARD / PAN CARD / DRIVING LICENSE IS NOT A VALID DOCUMENT TO TRAVEL TO NEPAL BY AIR

INDIAN CURRENCY RESTRICTIONS

The New Indian notes of Inr 200 and 500 denominations are not a valid tender currency in Nepal. Or in fact any denomination above Inr 100 notes are not valid in Nepal. Inr 100 notes and below are accepted. The maximum amount of Indian Currency one can carry is Inr. 25000 per person in 100 denomination and below.

GOLD RESTRICTIONS WHILE TRAVELING TO NEPAL

Legal limit to carry gold to Nepal on flight from India to Nepal is 25 gms in the form of ornaments only for males and 50 gms in the form of ornaments only for females without paying any Customs duty, in their personal baggage, on the condition that they will take it back on their exit from country. Import of ornaments above the permissible quantities can lead to seizure of ornaments and imposition of fine of equivalent value of the goods. It may also be noted that except ornaments, gold & silver in any other form like coins, biscuit, pieces etc. is not allowed to be imported by passengers. Such gold/silver articles are seized and confiscated by Nepal Customs. Besides confiscating the gold, a fine equivalent to the value of the gold seized is also imposed. As per provisions of Nepal Customs, besides seizure of goods and imposition of fine, a person can also be imprisoned for violation of its law. For information on any provisions related to safe custody of ornaments with Nepal Customs on arrival or procedure to bring ornament more than the permissible quantities for personal use during their stay in Nepal, please visit the official website of Nepal Customs at www.customs.gov.np
