DAY 1

Incheon to Seoul

Arrival in Incheon: Depending on the time of arrival, you may want to take it easy on this day.

Transfer to Seoul: A smooth transfer from Incheon Airport to your hotel in Seoul, allowing you to check-in, rest, and recover from your flight.

Suggestion: If time allows and you're feeling up to it, consider a light evening stroll around Myeongdong, a popular shopping district in Seoul with vibrant street food vendors.

DAY 2

Seoul to Jeju

Morning Transfer to Gimpo Airport: You will need to head to Gimpo, which is closer to central Seoul for your flight to Jeju.

Flight to Jeju: About 1 hour flight.

Jeju Day Tour:

Yongduam Rock: Also known as "Dragon Head Rock," this is a famous natural landmark. Take a nice walk around the area and enjoy the coastal views.

Yongyeon Cloud Bridge: The view from this bridge is spectacular, and it's an excellent spot for photos.

DAY 3

Full Day in Jeju

Sanbangsan Mountain: A beautiful, tranquil place for hiking. The view from the top is fantastic, and there's a temple near the summit.

Cheonjeyeon Waterfall: One of Jeju's most famous waterfalls. It's beautiful, surrounded by lush green scenery, and a nice place for a peaceful stroll.

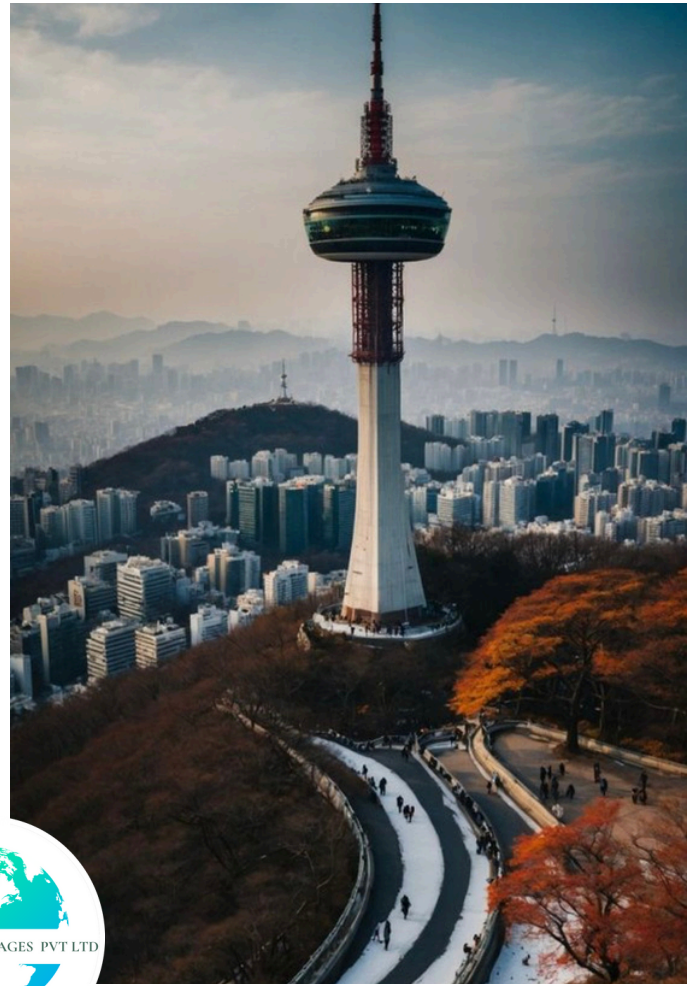

Jusangjeolli Cliff: Known for its dramatic basalt formations created by volcanic activity, this is a must-see in Jeju.

O'sulloc Museum: Learn about the history and culture of tea in Korea, and taste different types of tea while enjoying the beautiful surroundings.

DAY 4

Jeju to Seoul

Return to Seoul: After your flight from Jeju back to Seoul, you'll have the afternoon to explore.

Seoul City Tour:

Gyeongbokgung Palace: The main palace in Seoul, with beautiful architecture. You can also catch the Changing of the Guard Ceremony here (happens regularly at the main gate).

National Folk Museum: Located within the Gyeongbokgung complex, this museum offers a deeper insight into Korea's traditional lifestyle.

Gwanghwamun Plaza: A major public square where you'll see statues of historical figures like King Sejong.

Cheonggyecheon Stream: A pleasant walk along this restored stream in the heart of Seoul. It's especially charming at night when the lights come on.

N Seoul Tower: Enjoy panoramic views of the city from the observation deck, especially in the evening when the lights of Seoul twinkle.

DAY 5

Full Day in Seoul

SIC Tour (Seat-in-Coach Tour): This is a more structured day of sightseeing, which will allow you to see several of Seoul's highlights in one go.

- o Blue House (Pass by): The presidential residence, though you can only view it from the outside.

- o Gyeongbok Palace (Deoksu Palace on Tuesdays): As mentioned, this is a must-visit.

- o Jogyesa Buddhist Temple: A beautiful and peaceful Buddhist temple in the heart of the city.

- o Ginseng Center: A place to learn about the famous Korean ginseng and its medicinal properties.

- o Changdeok Palace: Known for its beautiful Secret Garden (don't miss it if you have the time).

- o Insadong: Explore this traditional area full of antique shops, galleries, and street food.

- o Namdaemun Market: One of the oldest traditional markets in Seoul, where you can find everything from local snacks to souvenirs.

Seoul to Incheon

Morning Transfer to Incheon:
Pick up at hotel, transfer to Incheon Airport with Korean
Speaking Driver for your return flight.

Depending on the time, you might be able to stop by a duty-free store at the airport to pick up any last-minute gifts or souvenirs.

NOTES

- Transport in Seoul: The subway and buses are convenient for getting around the city. If you're unfamiliar with Korean public transport, you can always rely on taxis or apps like Kakao Taxi.
 - Weather: March can still be quite chilly in Korea, especially in the mornings and evenings, so make sure to pack warm clothing
 - Cultural Etiquette: When visiting temples and palaces, be mindful of your behavior—dress modestly and be respectful, especially in places like Jogyesa Temple.
 - Food: Don't miss out on Korean BBQ, bibimbap, or tteokbokki (spicy rice cakes). If you're in Jeju, try their famous black pork!
